ANNOUNCEMENT
8 December 2011 E 2011/208

Travel grants for doctoral students

The Grants Committee of the Philosophical Faculties hereby announces the availability of travel grants for doctoral students from the following foundations:

Stiftelsen Henrik Ahrenbergs studiefond
Stiftelsen Paul och Marie Berghaus' donationsfond
Stiftelsen Paul och Marie Berghaus' donationsfond, understödsfonden
Stiftelsen Håkan Ekmans stipendiefond
Stiftelsen Oscar Ekmans stipendiefond, understödsfonden
Stiftelsen Stipendiefonden Viktor Rydbergs minne, understödsfonden

Eligible to apply for a travel grant are those doctoral students who at the time of application are registered as doctoral students at University of Gothenburg in a subject within the Faculties of Philosophy.

Travel grants are given for the following: participation in international conferences, participation in summer schools or shorter field trips for, e.g., the collection of data. A travel grant is only given for a trip that is embarked on after the deadline for the application for said travel grant has passed.

The maximum amount given for an individual trip to a destination outside Sweden is currently 10 000 SEK and for a trip within Sweden it is 5 000 SEK. The cumulative amount for these grants for a doctoral student during their period of study at University of Gothenburg may not exceed 30 000 SEK.

The above amounts are tentative and may be adjusted depending on the number of applicants.

You can fill out a form and apply for travel grants for doctoral students, through the university web server's electronic link: <https://stipendium.sahlgrenska.gu.se/>

Applications must be received by Wednesday February 1 2012.
