

Svitlana Paliienko

- is an educational manager, methodist of the highest level in the National University of Kyiv Mohyla Academy;
- has 30-year experience of practical work with students of different branches;
- focuses on curriculum development, pedagogy, educational leadership, organizational management, students outcomes;
- serves as a mentor and advisor to both students and colleagues, sharing expertise and insights gleaned from years of experience in the field;
- examines innovative teaching methods, strategies for improving student engagement, quality and effectiveness of educational initiatives;
- investigates and assesses the impact of distance learning on students Natural Science branches in circumstances connecting with COVID-19 pandemic and war;
- actively participates in educational conferences and trainings, particularly in the field of psychology, pedagogy and international student mobility;
- contributes valuable insights to the field through published articles on pedagogical practices and educational advancements.

e-mail: palienkoso@ukma.edu.ua