

CURRICULUM VITAE

Full name:	Gudmundur Johannsson
Title:	MD, Professor
Born:	15 December 1960, Reykjavík, Iceland
Medical degree	1986 Licentiate of Medicine, University of Iceland 1988 Registered MD, Iceland 1989 Registered MD, Sweden 1993 Board certificate in Internal Medicine 1994 Board certificate in Endocrinology
Thesis:	Growth hormone replacement in growth hormone-deficient adults: long-term efficacy and individual responsiveness. University of Göteborg, Sweden, Mars 22, 1997 Endocrinology/Internal Medicine
Ass/Prof	1998-2010 Associate professor, University of Göteborg 2010- Professor
Post Doc	2001-2003 Visiting scientist Garvan Institute of Medical Research, University of New South Wales, Sydney
Present position:	Consultant in Endocrinology, Sahlgrenska University Hospital (30%) Professor, Sahlgrenska Academy, University of Göteborg (70%)
Professional Positions:	1988-1992 Registrar in Internal Medicine, Skövde, Sweden 1992-1994 Registrar in Endocrinology, Sahlgrenska University Hospital, Göteborg, Sweden 1994-1999 Senior registrar in Endocrinology, Göteborg 1997- 2000 Associate head of Dept. Endocrinology, Göteborg 1998-2009 Associate professor, University of Göteborg 2000- Consultant in Endocrinology, Göteborg 2000- 2011 Head Dept. of Endocrinology 2003-2012 Senior lecturer University of Göteborg 2004-2011 Chief Medical Officer DuoCort Pharma AB (part time) 2010- Professor of Endocrinology 2011-2015 Head Research and Education, Dept. Medicine, Sahlgrenska University Hospital 2015- Deputy Director, Department of internal Medicine, Institute of Medicine, Sahlgrenska Academy, University of Gothenburg
Society	Swedish Society of Internal Medicine Swedish Society of Endocrinology

Membership:

Growth Hormone Research Society (Council member)
The European Society of Endocrinology
The Australian Endocrine Society
The Endocrine Society (USA) – Member of Development committee 2012-

Other

Editor of European Journal of Endocrinology
Editorial board of Growth Hormone & IGF Research
Inventor of Plenadren® – new drug for glucocorticoid replacement therapy with market authorisation in EU 2011
Five global patents related to glucocorticoid treatments and growth hormone
GCP courses on a regular basis since 1996 and principal investigators in clinical trials since 1996.

Gudmundur Johannsson
Department of Endocrinology
Institute of Medicine, Sahlgrenska Academy
University of Gothenburg
& Sahlgrenska University Hospital
SE-413 45 Gothenburg
Sweden