CURRICULUM VITAE

Name: Andreas Bågenholm

Born: July 17, 1969, Göteborg, Sweden.

Present positions:

- Program Manager at the Quality of Government Institute.
- Research fellow and senior lecturer at the Department of Political Science at the University of Gothenburg.
- Project Manager of ANTICORRP (EU funded FP7 project 2012-17).

Higher Education: PhD in Political Science 2008.

Teaching/education: Responsible for

- the continuous development of courses in Central and East European Politics 1995-2008.
- the Master thesis course in European studies since 2007-09.
- Swedish and comparative politics at the gradual level in political science since 2005.

University of Gothenburg pedagogical team prize winner 2006

Current research:

- Corruption voting
- Politicization of corruption in election campaigns in Europe
- The performance of ‘anti-corruption parties’
- Party system development in Central and Eastern Europe with a focus on the emergence and success of new parties
- How Sweden became a non-corrupt society during the 19th century.
- Gender and corruption
Organiser conference section:

ECPR in Prague, September 2016: Corruption and electoral accountability: Voting behavior & electoral outcomes

Organiser workshop panels:

ECPR in Pisa September 6-8 2007: Explaining the performance of new and unestablished parties.

ECPR in Bordeaux, September 2013: European Party Competition and New Strategies under Societal Turbulence.

Publications:

Books

Book chapters:

Articles

Working papers/conference papers/reports

Working papers/conference papers/reports

Debate articles

"All anledning ta Dennis Töllborg på allvar.” Göteborgs-Posten, 30 november 2013.

"Grumliga skäl för Irakkrig”. Göteborgs-Posten, 3 oktober 2002.

Languages: Swedish - Native speaker; English - Fluent (native level).