

International Centre Scholarship Office

Requirements for the Axel Adler Scholarship 2023

The University of Gothenburg offers Axel Adler Scholarship 2023.

To be eligible for Axel Adler Scholarship:

- You are considered to be a fee-paying student.
- You applied for an international campus-based programme as your first priority at the University of Gothenburg
- You have applied and been admitted to a full-time Master programme or Bachelor programme (for Bachelor Programme only Software Engineering, International Relations and Business and Economics) at the University of Gothenburg.
- You can only be eligible for the scholarship for the programme that is your first priority in the international admission round at www.universityadmission.se.
- You have submitted your application for studies by 16 January 2023 and paid the application fee and documented your eligibility for studies by 1 February 2023 through universityadmissions.se.

Conditions for the Axel Adler Scholarship 2023

- The Axel Adler Scholarship covers the tuition fee for the whole programme a student has have been admitted to. This means 4 semesters/120 credits for Master programmes (with the exception for master's programme in Investigative Journalism which is 2 semesters/60 credits) and 6 semesters/180 credits for Bachelor programmes. The Axel Adler Scholarship does not cover living and accommodation expenses.
- Scholarship holders are covered by FAS+, which is an insurance issued under the authority of the Swedish Legal, Financial and Administrative Service Agency (Kammarkollegiet). You will find the terms and conditions for the FAS+ insurance in the attachment and on the website of Kammarkollegiet. <https://www.kammarkollegiet.se/engelska/start/all-services/insurance-for-foreign-visitors/student-insurance/students-who-pay-tuition-fees>.
- To keep your scholarship, you must complete at least 75% of the semester's credits. There are regular follow ups conducted.
- The scholarship will be revoked if the scholar does not start in time or continue with their studies at the University of Gothenburg following the rules and regulations for studies at the University of Gothenburg. For more information, see Study Environment and Rules – Student Portal \(gu.se\).

- If you are rewarded the scholarship, it is important to apply for a residence permit for studies by the Swedish Migration Agency as soon as possible. In order to be granted a residence permit for studies by the Swedish Migration Agency, you have to show that you have financial means to support yourself. You can find more information on Residence permit for studies in higher education.