

14:15-15:45 - Parallell session I	Room	09:00-10:30 - Parallell session II	Room	14:30-16:00 - Parallell session III	Room	09:00-10:30 - Parallell session IV	Room	13:00-14:30 - Parallell session V	Room
Parallell Session Ia: Evictability and migration: the logistics of refugee reception and housing	204	Parallell Session IIa: Migration, education and integration – policies, practices and trends	204	Parallell Session IIIa: Information and learning as key components for inclusion	204	Parallell Session IVa: Reflecting on methodologies for studying social, labor market and workplace integration	204	Parallell Session Va: Belonging without 'integration'? – the role of mobile ways of organizing and being in the world	204
Track Leaders: Sofi Jansson-Keshavarz, Karin Krifors, Vanna Nordling, Maria Persdotter, Mauricio Rogat, Ulrika Wernesjö		Track Leaders: Andrea Spehar, Simon Bauer & Kerstin von Brömssen		Track Leaders: Marguerite Daniel, Peter de Cuyper, Christine Steiner		Track Leaders: Andrea Spehar, Vedran Omanović & Gregg Bucken-Knapp		Track Leaders: Kerstin Martel & Amanda Haarman
Mauricio Rogat: Broadening one's horizon - evictions by other means		Kerstin von Brömssen: Negotiating religion in civic orientation courses in Sweden		Ragnhild Ihle: How can an immigrant NGO reduce the effects of negative social control, low income and intergenerational trauma through counselling and dialogue between young people and their parents?		Gregg Bucken-Knapp, Vedran Omanovic & Andrea Spehar: Let's change a perspective: Voices and agency of marginalized as a potential vehicle for changes		Amit Mitra: Integration challenges of migrants to Sweden: A lived in experience perspective
Jacob Lind: The long-term impact of extended and extreme housing insecurity on children fearing deportation:		Daniel Enstedt & Katarina Plank: Lived religion and social mobility among migrants in Sweden:		Jean-François Rase: Mentoring to work for refugees – a systematic literature review		Josepha Wessels: A sense of presence; visual ethnography using immersive		Ranji Devadason: Rethinking the Stranger: how transnational work practices endorse

Retrospective narratives of young adults in Denmark and Sweden		civic literacy and discrimination				360-video with Syrian refugees		being an 'outsider' in global organisations
Östen Wahlbeck: Nordic models for the implementation of temporary protection for refugees from Ukraine: Local integration and national resettlement practices				Diana Rayes: A qualitative evaluation of the use of Problem Management Plus (PM+) among Arabic-speaking migrants with psychological distress in France – The APEX study		Gabriella Elgenius & Amanj Aziz: Methods for participation and engagement in migration research: citizen and community research and findings from the Empower project.		Camilla Orjuela: The "ideal citizen" abroad: Engaging Rwanda's young generation diaspora
Kristen Kao: Neighborhood Segregation Preferences Among Migrants and Host Community Members in Turkey				Fei Guo, Marika Franklin & Lucy Taksa: Migrant ageing conundrums: Critiquing research and policy at the migration-ageing nexus and the neglect of race, ethnicity and age
Parallell Session Ib: Rethinking borders: Coloniality, change and abolition	220	Parallell Session IIb: Rethinking climate-related migration and governance in present global polycrisis	220	Parallell Session IIIb: Human-centred labour market inclusion	220	Parallell Session IVb: Migration, education and integration – policies, practices and trends	220	Parallell Session Vb: Evictability and migration: the logistics of refugee reception and housing	220

Track Leaders: Karin Åberg, Annika Lindberg, Amin Parsa		Track Leaders: Andréas Litsegård & Fanny Thornton		Track Leaders: Emma Ek Österberg, Nanna Gillberg, Maria Norbäck, Patrik Zapata, María José Zapata Campos		Track Leaders: Andrea Spehar, Simon Bauer & Kerstin von Brömssen		Track Leaders: Sofi Jansson-Keshavarz, Karin Krifors, Vanna Nordling, Maria Persdotter, Mauricio Rogat, Ulrika Wernesjö
Tintin Wulia: Performing Iconic Objects from the Border: Aesthetic Cosmopolitanism and Things-in-common		Aysheshim Terefe & Andréas Litsegård: Climate Related Migration and Governance in the Amhara Region, Ethiopia		Wen-Ching Ting: Exploring social integration and challenges of foreign domestic workers in Taiwan from the perspective of maternity protection		Måns Lundstedt: Multi-level governance, critical juncture, local integration		Karin Krifors & Vanna Nordling: Housing to endure a temporary status: Evictability and settlement of refugees in Swedish municipalities
Muhammed Seid Ebrahim: International migration's contextual analysis in the Horn of Africa: Framing from its meta-narratives		Siddiqui Md Rezwan: Climate-related Mobility in Coastal Islands of the Bay of Bengal: An investigation into the interconnections and disparities among governance initiatives		Almina Basic & Petra Aigner: Exploring the drivers of underemployment and deskilling of Ukrainian refugee women at EU labour markets: A comparison of two regions in Austria and Poland		Anna-Maria Sarstrand Marekovic: Discourses of skill and competency in the recertification process of internationally educated nurses in Sweden		Hanna Hellgren & Erik Ljungar: Housing conditions of Syrian refugees in Sweden
		Fanny Thornton: Rethinking Climate-Related Migration and Governance						Ulrika Wernesjö & Maria Persdotter: "Social dumping" of newly arrived migrants: An explorative study of local government policy and practice in four Swedish municipalities

		Dosol Nissi Lee: Islandisation: (Reverberating) Future of Human Migration in Asia						Rebecka Söderberg: 'This is not a ghetto': Residents' resistance and re-negotiation of neighbourhood narratives
Parallell Session Ic: Reflecting on methodologies for studying social, labor market and workplace integration	326	Parallell Session IIc: Information and learning as key components for inclusion	326	Parallell Session IIIc: Cultural Diversity and Economic-Social Integration in Migrant Entrepreneurship: A liability or an asset?	326	Parallell Session IVc: Belonging without 'integration'? – the role of mobile ways of organizing and being in the world	326	Parallell Session Vc: Cultural Diversity and Economic-Social Integration in Migrant Entrepreneurship: A liability or an asset?	326
Track Leaders: Andrea Spehar, Vedran Omanović & Gregg Bucken-Knapp		Track Leaders: Marguerite Daniel, Peter de Cuyper, Christine Steiner		Track Leaders: Quang Evansluong, Marcela Ramirez Pasillas, Siarhei Manzhynski, Amit Mitra		Track Leaders: Kerstin Martel & Amanda Haarman		Track Leaders: Quang Evansluong, Marcela Ramirez Pasillas, Siarhei Manzhynski, Amit Mitra

Lena Andersson: How to include hard to reach undocumented migrants into health research		Sara Bailey, Elizabeth FitzGerald & Agnes Kukulska-Hulme: The Digitalisation of Essential Services and Migrant Communities in the UK: The Critical Role of Non-Governmental Organisations in Providing Information and Facilitating Learning		Andrea Lasagni: Beyond the break-in break-out pattern? Migrant enterprises and the role of native networks in three strategic Italian economic sectors		Laura Kangas-Müller (co-authored with Dziuba and Vesa): Living amid liminality: multiple past-present-futures of the displaced Ukrainians as a remedy against insecurity		Ghadeer Hussein: Business in transit: Entrepreneurship and integration of Syrian refugees in Jordan and Turkey
Nassar Areen: Being Knowledgeable: A Central Functioning to the Well-being of Forced Migrants in Finland		Stefan Hofherr: Long-term Labor Market Participation of Foreign Born and Foreign Educated Immigrants in Germany		Peter Lugosi: Deploying cultural diversity as pliable assets in food enterprises		Katrin Ahlgren: Sociolinguistic belonging in relation to spatial factors: a longitudinal perspective		Josepha Wessels: ?Ud, Qanun and Darbukah; the role of traditional Arabic musical instruments in creating a postmigrant condition in Sweden
Jennifer Nnopuechi: False Integration: Marginalization and 'Deskilling' of Foreign-born migrants in the Labor Market		Ragnhil Hollekim & Marguerite Daniel: Mentoring for migrants: how do mentors experience the process?		Ghazal Zalkat & Henrik Barth: Towards digital entrepreneurship: Opportunities and challenges for female refugee entrepreneurs in Sweden		Jamila Hamidu: Integration via political participation of ethnic minorities in Britain? The case of the Ghanaian diaspora in London

		Christine Steiner: The Impact of Partnerships between Schools and Civil Society Actors on Social Inclusion of Immigrant Students in Germany
Parallell Session Id: Information and learning as key components for inclusion	302	Parallell Session IId: Human-centred labour market inclusion	302	Parallell Session IIId: Belonging without 'integration'? – the role of mobile ways of organizing and being in the world	302	Parallell Session IVd: Cultural Diversity and Economic-Social Integration in Migrant Entrepreneurship: A liability or an asset?	302	Parallell Session Vd: Exploring the nexus between security, police work, migration and integration	302
Track Leaders: Marguerite Daniel, Peter de Cuyper, Christine Steiner		Track Leaders: Emma Ek Österberg, Nanna Gillberg, Maria Norbäck, Patrik Zapata, María José Zapata Campos		Track Leaders: Kerstin Martel & Amanda Haarman		Track Leaders: Quang Evansluong, Marcela Ramirez Pasillas, Siarhei Manzhynski, Amit Mitra		Track Leaders: Robin Andersson Malmros & Göran Larsson
Ørjan Skaga: The significance of information: refugees' stories of involuntary family separation in Norway		Maria Norbäck: "No longer silent or dumb!" Emancipation work in immigrant women's cooperatives		Karolina Czerska-Shaw & Sandra King-Savic: Waves of Belonging: The shaping and anchoring of migrant networks through successive mixed migration		Anna Elkina: Belonging and non-belonging in the stories of highly skilled migrants in Finland		Karin Brunsson: Organizations and individuals in global society

Use Among Refugees in Sweden
Parallell Session Ie: Human-centred labour market inclusion	303	Parallell Session IIe: Cultural Diversity and Economic-Social Integration in Migrant Entrepreneurship: A liability or an asset?	303	Parallell Session IIIe: Rethinking borders: Coloniality, change and abolition	303	Parallell Session IVe: Exploring the nexus between security, police work, migration and integration	303	Parallell session Ve: Shifting places: agency out of spatial settings for labor market integration of immigrants
Track Leaders: Emma Ek Österberg, Nanna Gillberg, Maria Norbäck, Patrik Zapata, María José Zapata Campos		Track Leaders: Quang Evansluong, Marcela Ramirez Pasillas, Siarhei Manzhynski, Amit Mitra		Track Leaders: Karin Åberg, Annika Lindberg, Amin Parsa		Track Leaders: Robin Andersson Malmros & Göran Larsson		Track Leader Sarah Glännerfors
Johannes Brandstetter, Almina Besic & Petra Aigner: Integrating Ukrainian women in the labour market in Austria: privilege and pressure		Yafa Shanneik: Marriage Practices Among Syrian Muslim Refugees in Europe: Legal Integration through Governmentality		Salim Nabi: From Acting to Thinking Biopolitically Solidarity and the Anti Authoritarian Movement in Lesbos		Constanza Vera-Larrucea: Migration management with “extended arms” and diplomatic tools: On the role of the Swedish Police authority in implemented forced returns		Peter Lugosi: Distributed agency and inter-organisational arrangements in migrant support ecologies
Joanna Kulpinska, Katarzyna Górska & Anna Wyrwiz: COVID-19 and immigrant labour market – (re)organization of		Setoodeh Arash: Life Entrapment or Trampoline? Understanding existential life experiences of		Kristina Wejstål: Setting the Scene – European Migration and Border Control in Melilla		Michel Harb & Arne Wackenhut: Transnational Repression in an Age of Global Authoritarianism:		Ioanna Blasko : Engineers Entering a New Labour Market: Migrant and Refugee Engineers’ Path to adaptation strategies. Case study of Poland, the UK and Germany		Iranian rejected asylum seekers in Copenhagen's open drug scene			Experiences of Uyghur Diaspora Activists in Sweden		Employment in Sweden

Ylva Wallinder: From social well-being to 'work first': urban gardening in Gothenburg as a cooperative practice or a risky and individualized career-opportunity for migrant groups.		Saleh Deena: Exploring Determinants of Attitudes toward Immigration in The Middle East and North African (MENA) Countries		Raj Shivangi Mariam: "In Plain Sight: Architectures of Ruin in India and Kashmir".	Ruth Elizabeth Prado Perez: Militarization and migration control in Mexico
				Iman Sharabati: Futuristic heritage: Practices of Sumud and slow activism in Palestinian Craftculture	Mohul Seda: The Media Representations of Immigrant Criminality on Turkish Print Media			