

CERGU
CENTRUM FÖR EUROPAFORSKNING

CERGU AT VETENSKAPSFESTIVALEN

A POPULIST WAVE? THE EU PARLIAMENT ELECTIONS 2024

---

WHERE: STADSBIBLIOTEKET

WHEN: THURSDAY, APRIL 18, 12:00 – 12:45

---

Elections to the European Parliament are held in all EU member states between 6-9 June. They take place in a time where the EU is increasingly challenged by populist and Eurosceptic currents among citizens and political parties. The panel discussion brings together researchers at the Centre for European Research at the University of Gothenburg (CERGU), to talk about questions of what populism is, how it relates to Euroscepticism, what indications there are that the elections will experience a populist wave, and what a populist wave might come to mean for EU and Europe.

SPEAKERS

Linda Berg, PhD, Department of Political Science and Co-Pi for the Swedish Parliament European Parliament Election Study 2024, University of Gothenburg

Markus Johansson, PhD, Deputy Director, CERGU, University of Gothenburg

Hjalmar Falk, PhD, Department of Literature, History of Ideas and Religion, University of Gothenburg

Eva Hoxha, PhD candidate, Department of Political Science, University of Gothenburg

Olga Sasunkevich, PhD, Department of Cultural Sciences, University of Gothenburg

