

A free university?

GÖTEBORGS
UNIVERSITET

Student protests, freedom of speech, and the crisis of democracy

Gina Romero, UN Special Rapporteur on the rights to freedom of peaceful assembly and of association (FOAA)

Join us for a presentation by Gina Romero followed by a panel discussion with students and teachers on the state of freedom of expression, assembly, and debate at Swedish universities in light of the student movement in solidarity with Palestine.

February 18 at 16:00 - 18:00

Where: Husaren, Pilgatan

19A and online.

Language: English

Panel discussion with:

- Catharina Thörn, Professor and Deputy Head of the Department of Cultural Sciences, University of Gothenburg
- Anna Lundberg, Professor, Department of Sociology of Law, Lund University
- Jenny Kronman, Doctoral candidate, Department of Social Work, University of Gothenburg
- Isra Barham, Master student at the School of Architecture, Chalmers University of Technology, and Chairperson for Chalmers Social Justice

See it online:

Organised by: GUPA - Göteborgs Universitet
Förkningsnätverk för Palestina, Akademisk Frihet och
Solidaritet; CSM-RESIST - Department of Sociology and Work Science; MAGS - Maktkritiska och Globala Studier
i Socialt Arbete; School of Public Administration.