Information

If you have started an education with similar education orientation as one of the programmes offered at HDK-Valand and want to change programme or study location, you can apply for admission to later part of programme. We will then make an assessment of your current education and to which extent your approved studies correspond to the studies you applied for. You can be admitted to semester two (2) within the programme you applied for at the earliest.

Applications for admissions to later part of programme are ranked based on the assessment of personal letter and submitted work samples (portfolio). For some programmes, the applicant may be called for an interview as part of the selection procedure.

Admission to later part of programme can only be approved if:

1. There is a vacancy in the programme you want to study, and
2. You meet the programme's general- and specific entry requirements.

Appeals

Decisions about rejection of application due to lack of available seats in the programme cannot be appealed.

Decisions about rejection due to the applicant do not meet the entry requirements, can be appealed to the Board of Appeal for Education for higher education. The appeal has to be in writing. Include which decision you want to appeal, the change in the decision you request and why the change is requested. The appeal is to be received within three weeks of your receiving the decision.
