

Talking About Things

In each of the following dialogues one word is missing. You have to decide what the missing word is. Sometimes there is more than one possible answer.

Write only ONE word in each gap! Be careful with your spelling and grammar.

Example: • Excuse me. Could you tell me the way to the station?

◦ Sorry. I've no idea. I don't live here.

1 • What can we do to improve relations in this group?

◦ First of all, I think we should tell people to start treating _____ other with some respect!

2 • Have we got time for a quick coffee before you leave?

◦ Well, that _____ on Bruno. Maybe, if he can drive me to the station.

3 • How long have you known Naomi?

◦ I don't really know. But quite a long time.
It must be at _____ fifteen years.

4 • How did people _____ in the last American election?

◦ I don't remember, but I think the Democrats won.

5 • Do you have to show your passport when you cross
the _____ between Mexico and the US?

◦ Yeah, I think so.

6 • I'm so tired of practising every day! I don't seem to improve at all.

◦ Don't give up! I'm sure it'll pay off in the long _____.
