- Students must respect the thesis procedures and deadlines from both institutions.
- Each institution will grade the final thesis according to its own standards.

2.2 Thesis process at GU

Students are required to attend a thesis course in the second semester of their mobility year at GU. The course is designed to be offered in Gothenburg, therefore Luiss students are expected to be in Gothenburg to work on the thesis, attend group workshops and present their theses in the group. Presenting the thesis, opposing another thesis, and handing in the final thesis are mandatory activities to graduate from the University of Gothenburg;

Presentation: May

Thesis handover: June

2.3 Thesis process at Luiss

The final examination of Master's Degree Programs at Luiss consists of a discussion and evaluation of a written dissertation (thesis).

The thesis project must be developed by the student under the guidance of both the Supervisor (chosen by the student based on the dissertation topic) and Co-Supervisor (allocated by default). To take the final examination, it is mandatory to register to the Degree Session.

An academic year includes three degree sessions: Summer (normally June/July), Autumn (normally October/November) and Extraordinary (normally March/April).

DD students can graduate in any of these sessions, however it is important to note that there are internal Luiss deadlines that both students (from Luiss and Gothenburg) need to respect. These deadlines are published on the following web page:

<https://www.luiss.edu/students/student-office/masters-degree-programs/assignment-thesis-title-and-degree-exams>

The date of the thesis discussion (Degree Examination date) will be published on Web Self Service under Degree Examination, as well as on the University's Notice Board, closer to the Degree Examination date.

There is no possibility to express any preference as to the Degree Examination date.
