

Exempel på uppgiftstyper

Focus: Writing

A Good Life

A Good Life

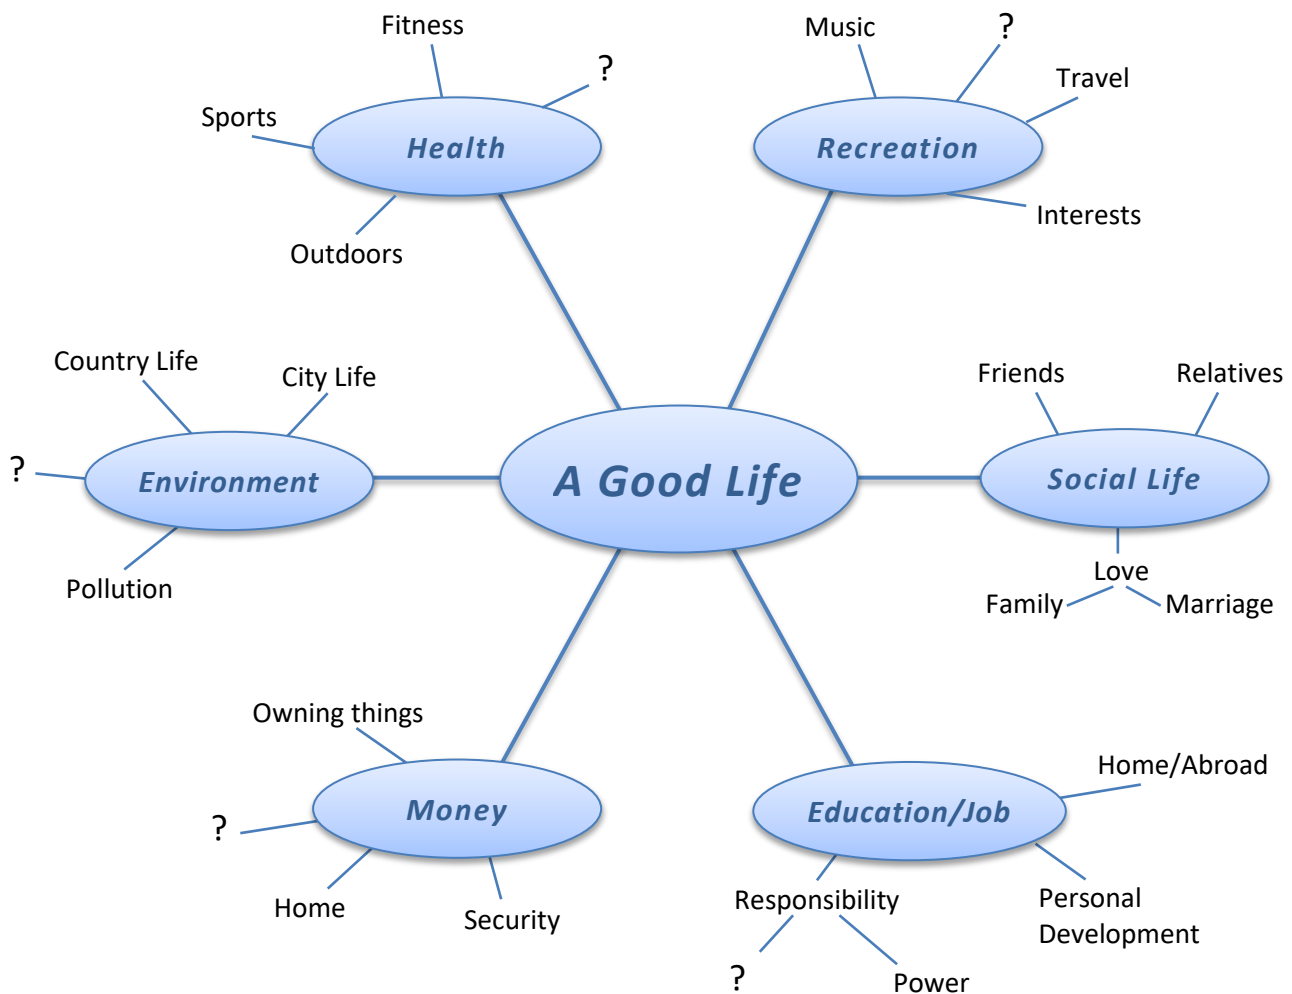

– What makes a good life? What is important to you?

The online magazine Outlook will focus on the subject A Good Life and you are now invited to write a text for the magazine.

You have 80 minutes to write your text. It should be at least 250 words but not more than 600 words. Make sure you have time to check what you have written.

Write a text about what is important in life to people in general – and to yourself. Use some or all of the points on the next page when planning and writing your text. You can also use the mind map for inspiration.

Explain – Give examples – Discuss – Compare

Title: A Good Life

- What is important to people in general in order to live a good life?
- What important decisions do people need to make in life?
- What is a good life for you personally?
- How can you reach your good life?
- How has the idea of a good life changed over time?
- What will be important for future generations?

