Welcome and Opening Keynote Speech: Friday 09.00-10.15

Room: Viktoriasalen, Viktoriagatan 13

Welcome and practical information: Klas Rönnbäck (University of Gothenburg)

Opening keynote speech:

Prof. Mohamed Saleh (London School of Economics): title to be announced

Mohamed Saleh is a Professor of Economic History at the London School of Economics and Political Science (LSE). Professor Saleh's research has been focused on the Economic History of the Middle East and North Africa. He has been interested in two main themes of research. The first theme is the Economic History of Identity, and in particular how fiscal policy impacted the formation of religious groups, their socioeconomic outcomes, and their narratives, via tax-induced conversions. The second theme is Historical Political Economy, and in particular, coercion of labour, forced migration, land inequality, and historical roots of political authoritarianism.
