

CV Rune Andersson, born August 27, 1951

Professor emeritus in global health, senior professor in infectious diseases, Institute of Biomedicine, The Sahlgrenska Academy, University of Gothenburg, Guldhedsgatan 10a, SE-40234 Gothenburg, SWEDEN

Tel + 46 31 342 4923 (office) , +46 706 441238 (mobile), +46 31 419310 (Fax)

E-mail: rune.andersson@gu.se (job) webaddress: www.sahlgrenska.gu.se ;

www.biomedicine.gu.se

Higher education degrees: MD 1976, certified medical doctor 1977.

Doctors degree: Ph.D. in Infectious Diseases, 1988. Thesis: " Giant cell arteritis-immunopatology, long-term corticosteroid treatment and mortality".

Docent (associate professor), Senior Lecturer level : 1992 in infectious diseases at Gothenburg University Specialist certifications: Specialist in internal medicine 1984, specialist general medicine 1984, specialist infectious diseases 1985.

Present position: Profesor emeritus, senior professor in infectious diseases at Department of Infectious Diseases, Institute of Biomedicine, Sahlgrenska Academy, Gothenburg University. Senior consultant in hospital infection control at Sahlgrenska University Hospital, Gothenburg from April 2020.

Previous positions: Clinical work in the field of Infectious diseases at the Sahlgrenska University Hospital 1981- 2001.

Work at the Research at Skaraborg Hospital, Skövde 2001- 2010 and as head of the Research Unit 2003- 2010.

Professor in Infectious Diseases 20 % at the Sahlgrenska Academy 2002 - 2010.

Professor in global health 2010-2018.

Senior consultant Hospital Infection Control 2011-2018

Chairman of the Health & Medical Care Committee of the Regional Executive Board, Region Västra Götaland 2006-2011.

Guest professor at Xinjiang Medical University, Urumqi, China 2005-2014

Guest professor at College of Xinjiang Uyghur Medicine, Hotan, China 2015-2018

Supervision:

Main supervisor for 7 PhD students with passed exams:

Harriet Hogevik, 1996 on endocarditis,

Christopher Schaufelberger, 1997 on giant cell arteritis,

Gunnar Jacobsson, 2009 on invasive Stafylococcus aureus infections,
Erik Backhaus 2012 on Invasive pneumococcal infections
Rena Maimaiti , Urumqi, China on HIV and tuberculosis 2015.
Lars Ljungström on Community acquired severe sepsis and septic shock, 2017
Manijeh Mehdiyar on living with HIV among immigrants in western Sweden, 2019
Co-supervisor for 7 PhD students with passed exams:
Maria Werner 2006 on endocarditis,
Ulrika Snygg Martin 2009 on endocarditis,
Eric Gustafsson 2009 on Stafylococcus aureus infections,
Diana Karlsson 2010 on pneumococcal infections,
Åsa Alsiö 2011 on Hepatitis C,
Inger Johansson on Cytomegalovirus infections in heart- and lung transplant patients 2014,
Jenny Lindahl on herpes virus infections in transplant patients, 2019

I am co-supervisor for

- Muhandule Brindwa Archippe, MD, Bukavu, D. R. of Congo in PhD project at Gothenburg University on “Pneumococcal infections among children below the age of three years in D.R. of Congo.”, planned dissertation 200610
- Mathilda Emgård at Gothenburg University in a PhD-project of pneumococcal infections in Tanzania and Sweden.
- Mulugeta Tamire, Ethiopia in a PhD project on respiratory infections among women and children in Ethiopia, passed half-term seminar 180821.
- Karin Beckman on pneumococcal infections in western Sweden

I have been supervisor for 126 students in theses projects on 15 ECTS and 48 students in theses on 30 ECTS.

I have been chairman for the national committee responsible for the specialist training in infectious diseases and have experience in supervision in clinical training.

I received in 2017 the TianShan Award for Foreign Experts from the Government of Xinjiang Uyghur Autonomous Region, China

EU-project:

I was responsible at the Gothenburg University for the Tempus Project on Environmental Medicine and occupational Health in Central Asia 2012-2015.