

Dimitrios Theodoridis

Personal number: 870612-0477

Department of Economy and Society, Gothenburg University

Viktoriagatan 13, 405 30 Göteborg, Sweden

Email: dimitrios.theodoridis@gu.se

EMPLOYMENT

2018 – currently Post-doctoral researcher and lecturer, Department of Economy and Society, Gothenburg University, Sweden

EDUCATION

2014 –2018 PhD in Economic History, Department of Economy and Society, Gothenburg University, Sweden

2011 – 2013 MSc in Economic Growth, Innovation and Spatial Dynamics, Department of Economic History, Lund University, Sweden

2005 - 2010 BSc in Economics, Department of Economics, University of Macedonia, Greece

PUBLICATIONS

Rönnbäck, K., Broberg, O., and Theodoridis, D. (2022) “Fool’s Gold: the Return on Investment in Global Mining, 1869-1969”, The Journal of European Economic History, no 1-22 (accepted for publication/forthcoming)

Theodoridis, D. (2021) “Colonialism and Trade- The Ecological Foundations of British Trade in the Nineteenth Century”, Journal of Interdisciplinary History, (accepted for publication/forthcoming)

Rönnbäck, K., Broberg, O., and Theodoridis, D. (2021) “The Gains of Going Global: The Return on Investments in International Copper-Mining during the Second Industrial Revolution?” In R. Declercq, D. Money and H-O Frøland (Ed.) Born with a Copper Spoon: A Global History of Copper and How It Fed the Modern World (1830-1980), University of British Columbia Press (forthcoming)

Rönnbäck, K. and Theodoridis, D. (2021) “Cotton cultivation under colonial rule in India in the nineteenth century from a comparative perspective”, The Economic History Review, 00, 1-22

Theodoridis, D. (2020) “La balance commerciale de la Baltique – Premières évaluations à partir de la base de données du STRO / The balance of Baltic trade - Historical empirical estimates based on STRO”, Revue D’Histoire Nordique, no 27/2018

Theodoridis, D., Rönnbäck, K. and Scheltjens, W. (2019) “Factor endowments and international trade: a study of land embodied in trade on the Baltic Sea region, 1750-1856”, European Review of Economic History, 24 (4), 716-735

Theodoridis, D. (2018) “Development constrained – Essays on land as a factor in nineteenth-century industrialization and trade”, Doctoral dissertation, Gothenburg: Gothenburg University

Rönnbäck, K. and Theodoridis, D. (2018) “African agricultural productivity and the transatlantic slave trade: evidence from Senegambia in the nineteenth century”, The Economic History Review, 00, 1-24

Theodoridis, D., Warde P. and Kander, A. (2018) “Trade and overcoming land constraints in British Industrialization – an empirical assessment”, Journal of Global History, 13 (3), 328–351

Prado, S. and Theodoridis, D. (2017) “Electricity and Technology-Skill Complementarity: Evidence from the Swedish Industrial Census of 1931.” Essays in Economic and Business History, XXXV (1): 95-120

Theodoridis, D. (2017) “The Ecological Footprint of 19th Century Traded Products- Coefficients on Land Use per Unit of Product.” Göteborg Papers in Economic History, 21

Theodoridis, D. (2015) “Internationalization of higher education – Teaching challenges in an international, multicultural classroom”, Pedagogical Essays, University of Gothenburg

ONGOING RESEARCH

Theodoridis, D., Galli, S. and Rönnbäck K. "Reversal of fortune or persistence of wealth? Comparative evidence on wealth inequality in the Danish West Indies in the mid-nineteenth century", In progress

Theodoridis, D. "Britain's historical ecological footprint – an account of 19th century industrial consumption", In progress

Theodoridis, D. "Comparative advantages and the Empire- a comparative analysis of Indigo cultivation in the US and India", In progress

TEACHING EXPERIENCE and other PEDAGOGICAL ACTIVITIES

- 2015- currently Lecturer in Department of Economy and Society, Gothenburg University
- Quantitative Research Methods course (BSc & MSc-level)
 - Statistics course (BSc & MSc-level)
 - Environmental Effects and Conflicts course (MSc-level)
- First- cycle (Bachelor's) thesis supervision
- Ostrowski, V. 2018. Miljöregleringar och handel
- 2018 Visiting Lecturer at Chalmers University, Gothenburg
- Sustainable biomass supply course (MSc-level)
- 2021 Assisting partner in EMERALD project
- Developing teaching cases as part of the development of an Erasmus Mundus joint master's degree program

ACADEMIC AWARDS

- 2019 Prize for best doctoral dissertation in economic history in Sweden 2017-19, awarded by the Swedish Economic History Society
- 2019 Per Nyströms prize for doctoral dissertation, awarded by the Swedish Royal Society of Arts and Sciences in Göteborg, Kungl. Vetenskaps- och Vitterhets-Samhället (KVVS)
- 2018 Osher Ph.D. Student Fellowship, Barbro Osher Pro Suecia Foundation

FUNDED RESEARCH PROJECTS

- 2019-2023 co-applicant with principal investigator Professor Klas Rönnbäck and Ph.D. Stefania Galli in research project: Reversal of fortune or persistence of wealth? funded by the Swedish Research Council (Vetenskapsrådet) and Handelsbanken
- 2019 co-applicant with principal investigator Professor Klas Rönnbäck in research project: Cotton cultivation, coercion and colonialism, funded by Birgit och Gad Rausings Stiftelsen and the Foundation for Economic Research in West Sweden

Co-ORGANIZATION OF CONFERENCES or WORKSHOPS

- 2015 co-organizer of ESTER Course, N.W. Posthumus Institute, 28–30 Oct. Gothenburg
- 2018 co-organizer of Sound Economic History Workshop, 6–7 Sep. Gothenburg

CONFERENCE PARTICIPATION

"The balance of Baltic trade"

2021 Baltic Connections Virtual Conference, Economic and Social History, University of Helsinki

"Reversal of fortune or persistence of wealth?"

2019 The Caribbean Economic History Association (AHEC) V International Congress, San Jose, Costa Rica
2019 European Historical Economics Society Conference, Paris, France
2019 13th Swedish Economic History Meeting, Uppsala, Sweden

“Natural Resource Nexus and Asia's Great Acceleration”

2019 International Workshop on Natural Resource Nexus and Asia's Great Acceleration, Kyoto, Japan

“Supply Chains in Early Modern Europe”

2019 Supply Chains Workshop Cambridge University, Cambridge, UK

“Factor endowments, ghost acreages and international trade networks: a study of land embodied in Baltic trade, 1750-1850”

2018 XVIII World Economic History Congress, Boston, USA

“The White Man's Relief - The Ecological Foundations of British Trade in the Nineteenth Century”

2017 European Historical Economic Society (EHES) Conference, Tübingen, Germany

“Factor endowments and the Baltic trade – “Ghost acreage calculations based on STRO”

2016 Sound Toll Registers Online conference, Leipzig, Germany

“African agricultural productivity and the transatlantic slave trade: evidence from Senegambia in the nineteenth century”

2018 XVIII World Economic History Congress, Boston, USA

2016 African Economic History Network, VI Annual Conference, Brighton, UK

“Could Britain have made without the colonies? An ecological assessment on the role of trade during the 19th century”

2016 International Society of Ecological Economics, Annual Conference, Washington DC

“Overcoming the land constraints in British industrialization – coal and trade compared”

2016 Economic History Society, Annual Conference, Cambridge, UK

“Coal or Colonies? The Net Ecological Appropriation of the UK's Trade Activities with the Periphery in the 19th Century”

2015 European Society of Environmental History, 8th Conference, Versailles, France

LANGUAGE SKILLS

Greek; Mother-tongue

English; Fluent user

Spanish; Basic user

Swedish; Basic user

COMPUTER SKILLS

- Stata
- EViews

REFERENCES

Professor Klas Rönnbäck

Unit of Economic History, Department of Economy and Society, Gothenburg University

klas.ronnback@econhist.gu.se

Phone: +46 31 786 4520

Professor Astrid Kander

Department of Economic History, Lund University

astrid.kander@ekh.lu.se

Phone: +46 46 222 74 8

Professor Paul Warde

Faculty of History, Cambridge University

psw1000@cam.ac.uk

Phone: +44 (0)1223 339950