

Jasmine Christine Elliott

Doktorand/ PhD Student – Practical Philosophy
Department of Philosophy, Linguistics and Theory of Science - University of Gothenburg

PhD thesis:

Title - The legal profession's responsibility in advising on ethical business conduct and human rights

Supervisor - Bengt Brülde, Professor in Practical Philosophy

Expected completion date - April 2022

Affiliated Research Project - PhD funded by the Centre for Collective Action Research

Education:

2015 - MA in Global Ethics and Human Values (Distinction), King's College London (London, UK)

- ❖ Dissertation - 'The pilot judgement procedure: Advancing the institutional legitimacy of the European Court of Human Rights'

2012 - BA In Political Science/ English Literature/ Poverty, Justice and Human Capabilities, Rice University (Houston, TX)

- ❖ Senior Dissertation - "Literature on trial: A case study of the representation of legal culture and capital punishment in Native Son, To Kill a Mockingbird, and In Cold Blood"

Recent employment:

2018-present - Anti-Corruption Compliance Officer, Volvo Cars (Gothenburg, Sweden)

- ❖ Implement and monitor procedures and internal controls related to anti-corruption.
- ❖ Support third party due diligence processes and internal investigations.
- ❖ Create and deliver training on anti-corruption and the Code of Conduct

2015-2018 - Business Ethics Coordinator, Norton Rose Fulbright LLP (London, UK)

- ❖ Coordinator for global Business Ethics and Anti-Corruption and Business and Human Rights teams.
- ❖ Experienced in cross-jurisdictional investigations and risk-management exercises for multinational clients relating to anti-bribery & corruption and compliance.
- ❖ Engaged in anti-corruption research for international organizations and co-authored reports analyzing national anti-corruption strategies and approaches of various countries.

Recent presentations and workshops:

2021 (upcoming) - Socio-Legal Studies Association Annual Conference, "What does ethics mean for lawyers?: A pilot analysis of code of conducts from the legal profession"

2021 (upcoming) - Asia and Oceania Business and Human Rights Doctoral Symposium "The role of the legal profession in respecting human rights"

2020 - Gothenburg Centre for Sustainable Development, Act Sustainable Research Conference, "If money talks, what is the banking industry saying about climate change?"

2019 - Inter-University Centre Dubrovnik, The Diversity of Human Rights: Complicity in Human Rights Violations Conference, "Complicity and 'causing, contributing and being directly linked' to in the UN Guiding Principles"

2019 - University of Oxford, Justice for Transnational Human Rights Violations: At the Crossroads of Litigation, Policy and Scholarship Conference, "The role of the legal profession in fulfilling the UN Guiding Principles and respecting human rights"

2019 - University of Reading, Ethics and Political Philosophy Graduate/ Early Career Conference, "Indirect responsibility for harm or wrong-doing caused by advising"

2018 - Bokmässan Göteborg, "The ethical role of corporate lawyers and respect for public interest"

Collaborations and networks:

2018-present – Member, UK Business and Human Rights Scholars Network

2018-present – Member, Transparency International Professional Supporters Network UK

2014-present – Senior Fellow, Humanity in Action