

Marcus Lundmark | CV and Publications

Experience (latest employments)

- Quality Improvement Officer — Dept of psychotic disorders, Sahlgrenska University Hospital, VGR 2016 — ongoing
Developing, coordinating, and evaluating improvement projects of psychiatric health services, training in psychiatric treatment methods, and output data management with a focus on the use of data, visualizations, and coproduction. Currently doctoral studies at Jönköping University.
- Quality Improvement Officer — Socialpsykiatri, Mölndals stad 2008 — 2016
Coordinate social psychiatric support and regional psychiatric services, as well as train staff in psychiatric treatment methods and supervision.
- Psychiatric Nurse — Psykiatrisk akutmottagning, Psykiatri i Göteborg 1998 — 2008
Clinical work at a psychiatric emergency department in Gothenburg.

Education (latest)

- Doctoral studies — PhD, Jönköping University 2023 — ongoing
PhD focused on digitalization, person-centered care, and how we can use patient-reported outcome measures to understand and improve healthcare.
- Quality Improvement and leadership in health and welfare — Master, Jönköping University 2018 — 2021
- Specialist nursing degree in psychiatric care — Gothenburg University 2004 — 2006
- Bachelor of Nursing — Nurse, Gothenburg University 2001 — 2004

Publications

Lindenfalk, B., Gremyr, A., Lundmark, M., & Jacobsson, T. (2022). Digitally Mediated Schizophrenia Care—A Swedish Case of Translating, Designing and Expert Evaluation of Dialog+. In MEDINFO 2021: One World, One Health—Global Partnership for Digital Innovation (pp. 882-886). IOS Press.

Sent to BMC Psychiatry for publication:

Lundmark, M. Allerby, K. Gremyr, A. Andersson, A-C. Patients' Experience of Patient-Reported Outcomes, Continuous Feedback, and a Solution-Focused Approach (Using DIALOG+) in Psychosis Care in Sweden