

CV LÄRARE

Bifoga 1. CV som inkluderar examina, anställningar och andra relevanta meriter 2. fullständig publikationslista 3. redogörelse för erhållna forskningsanslag

PART 1: CV ROBIN BIDDULPH

Bergakärrsgatan 20B, 426 77 Västra Frölunda
Swedish tax number: 650206-3495
+46 768 638291
Robin.Biddulph@geography.gu.se

Educational Qualifications

BA (Hons) in English and Related Literature and Education, University of York, UK, 1987
MA in Development Administration, Australian National University, 1997
PhD in Human Geography, University of Gothenburg, Sweden, 2011 (Appendix 1)
Associate Professor of Human Geography since 3 March 2017 (Appendix 2)

Language skills

English – native
Swedish – fluent spoken and written
Khmer – fluent spoken and basic written

Professional experience (most recent first)

University of Gothenburg 2005-present

2013 – present: Researcher in Human Geography (60% research; 20% teaching; 20% administration)

2011-2012: Researcher in Human Geography (40% research; 10% teaching; 50% administration)

2005-2011: PhD candidate

Previous employment in Sweden 2001-6

2003-2006: Secondary School teacher (unqualified) at Björkbackens skola och behandlingshem

2001-2003: Part-time Care worker at Slättadamsgruppobstad

Cambodia 1991-2001

1997-2001: Research and Evaluation Consultant. Led 25 projects with teams of 2 to 40 researchers

1993-1996: Humanitarian Mine-clearance – Location Manager with the HALO Trust

1991-1993: University Lecturer – English Language, undergraduate level, University of Phnom Penh

United Kingdom 1987-2001

1991: Sales and Production manager in family garment business Neon Safety Aids (April – August)

1987-1991: British Army Officer – Troop Commander in ACE Mobile Force

Administrative positions

Coordinator of the Visiting Professor Programme at the School of Business Economics and Law, University of Gothenburg from July 2010 to present (we have contracted 60 visiting professors on three year contracts and had a programme budget of 80 million Swedish kronor during 2010-2019)

Peer review

I have acted as a reviewer for the following academic journals:

1. Development and Change
2. Development Policy Review
3. European Journal of Development Research
4. Environment Development and Sustainability
5. Extractive Industries
6. Geoforum
7. Annals of the Association of American Geographers
8. Tourism Geographies
9. Tourism Planning and Development

10. Forest Ecology and Management
11. Forests
12. AMBIO Journal of the Human Environment
13. Erdkunde Review
14. Contemporary Politics
15. Civil Wars
16. African Studies Review
17. Critical Asian Studies
18. Asia Pacific Viewpoint
19. Journal of Southeast Asian Studies
20. Asia in Focus
21. International Journal of Asia Pacific Studies

I have also peer reviewed two book manuscripts

1. For the Nordic Institute of Asian Studies: now published:
Sullivan, M. (2016). Cambodia Votes: Democracy, Authority and International Support for Elections 1993-2013, NIAS Press. (341 pages)
2. For the University of Washington Press (review completed December 2018, manuscript still in process)

Contact with wider society

Steering group member of the Forest, Climate and Livelihoods Research Network (www.focali.se)
2009-2019

Conference Organisation

I co-organised the Centre for Tourism Symposium on Inclusive Tourism 16-17 March 2016 (with Dr Kristina Lindström) and a one-day symposium on Fieldwork Ethics 22 March 2017 (with Professor Regina Scheyvens)

I have also co-organised panels at the 2016 and 2017 Annual Association of American Geographers conferences (both with Professor Regina Scheyvens) and at the Nordic Geographers Meeting (Stockholm 2017) and the Development Research Conference (Gothenburg 2018) (both with Dr Margareta Espling)

PhD Examiner & Discussant

I have served on the external examination board for two doctoral dissertations:

- Connell, J. 2015 Safeguarding resettlement: global expectations and local experiences in Cambodia, Department of Geography, University of Sydney, Australia
- Zhang, M. 2019 Community Participation in the Tourism Governance at the Chinese Border: Power, Boundaries and Values, Department of Tourism & Geography, Rovira i Virgili University, Spain

I have also served as discussant at the University of Gothenburg for two final PhD seminars and two licentiate seminars.

Teaching experience in summary

During the period 2010-2018 I have completed 2188 hours of university level teaching.

I have served as course leader for courses at Masters and Bachelors levels including courses in Global Development and Human Rights, Environmental Science, Tourism Geography, Project Management and Project Management in Environment

Regular lectures have included topics such as: Rural Livelihoods in the global South; Rural-Global interactions in the global South; Political Ecology; Geopolitics; Forest Management and Climate Change; Land Reform; Migration

At the Post-graduate level I have given two PhD literature courses at the University of Gothenburg and been a teacher on a Swedish national PhD course. I have also co-run two two-day workshops in academic writing skills for post-doctoral and doctoral researchers at Makerere University, Kampala with the objective of building their capacity to engage successfully with the international peer review process. Similarly I have delivered two staff development seminars for researchers at the Faculty of Social Sciences at the University of Dar es Salaam, again focusing on academic writing and publishing of research results.

University Pedagogy Qualifications

I have completed 20 university credits of professional training in university level pedagogy including both teaching and supervision as below (papers available on request):

1. Biddulph (2014) HPE101 Motivating students to continue studying human geography at the University of Gothenburg (Final Submission for Course HPE101 Teaching and Learning in Higher Education 1: Basic Course)
2. Biddulph (2015) HPE201 Reflection paper: Intellectual crisis and threshold concepts (Final Submission for Course HPE201 Supervision in Postgraduate Programmes)
3. Biddulph (2016) HPE 102 Kursplaneringsdokumentet (Final Submission for Course HPE 102 Högskolepedagogik 2 vid Samhällsvetenskapliga fakulteten)
4. Biddulph (2016) HPE 103 Teachers' Teamwork at Course Level in Higher Education (First Submission for Course HPE103 Högskolepedagogik 3, Självständigt arbete)

I have supervised at least 6 completed undergraduate thesis projects

PART 2: FULL PUBLICATIONS LIST

Articles in Peer Reviewed Academic Journals

1. Biddulph, R. & Hillbom, E. 2020. "Registration of private interests in land in a community lands policy setting: An exploratory study in Meru district, Tanzania". Land Use Policy, 99, 104830.
2. Spring, C. A. & Biddulph, R. 2020. "Capturing Waste or Capturing Innovation? Comparing Self-Organising Potentials of Surplus Food Redistribution Initiatives to Prevent Food Waste". Sustainability:12, 4252.
3. Biddulph, R. (2018). "The 1999 Tanzania land acts as a community lands approach: A review of research into their implementation." Land Use Policy 79: 48-56.
4. Biddulph, R. and R. Scheyvens (2018). "Introducing inclusive tourism." Tourism Geographies: 1-6.
5. Biddulph, R. (2017). "Social enterprise and inclusive tourism. Five cases in Siem Reap, Cambodia." Tourism Geographies: 1-20.
6. Scheyvens, R. and R. Biddulph (2017). Inclusive tourism development. Tourism Geographies: 1-21.
7. Biddulph, R. and P. Amberntsson (2017). Whose Reality Counts? Critical Junctures in Livelihood Trajectories under Deforestation. Tijdschrift voor Economische en Sociale Geografie 108(5): 540-553.
8. Biddulph, R. (2017). "Tourist territorialisation and geographies of opportunity at the edges of mass destinations." Tourism Geographies 19(1): 27-43.
9. Biddulph, R. (2015). Limits to mass tourism's effects in rural peripheries. Annals of Tourism Research 50(1): 98-112.
10. Biddulph, R. (2014). Can elite corruption be a legitimate Machiavellian tool in an unruly world? The case of post-conflict Cambodia. Third World Quarterly 35(5): 872-887.
11. Biddulph, R. (2011). Tenure Security Interventions in Cambodia: Testing Bebbington's approach to Development Geography. Geografiska Annaler: Series B, Human Geography, 93(3), 223-236.

Book Chapters

1. Biddulph, R. and S. Williams (2017). From Chicken Wing Receipts to Students in Military Uniform: Land Titling and Property in Post-Conflict Cambodia. The Handbook of Contemporary Cambodia. K. Brickell and S. Springer. London, Routledge: 169-178.
2. Biddulph, R. (2015). In whose name and in whose interests? An actor-oriented analysis of community forestry in Bey, a Khmer village in Northeast Cambodia. Conservation and Development in Cambodia: Exploring frontiers of change in nature, state and society. S. Milne and S. Mahanty, Earthscan: 160-176.
3. Westholm, L., Biddulph, R., Hellmark, I. & A. Ekbohm (2015). REDD+ and Tenure: A Review of the Latest Developments in Research, Implementation and Public Policy Debates in Forest Tenure Reform in Asia and Africa: Local Control for Improved Livelihoods, Forest Management, and Carbon Sequestration. R. Bluffstone and E. J. Z. Robinson, Routledge.
4. Biddulph, R. (2010). Bey village and the Political Ecology of Southeast Asian Forests. In E. Friman & G. L. Gallardo Fernández (Eds.), Politicized Nature: Global Exchange, Resources and Power. (2 ed.). Uppsala: Cemus.
5. Biddulph, R. (2004). The Decentralization Flower in Cambodian Soil. In M. Nelson (Ed.), Thai Politics: Global and Local Perspectives. KPI Yearbook No. 2. Bangkok: King Prajadhipok's Institute.

6. Charya, C., Pithou, S., Sovannarith, S., McAndrew, J., Sokuntea, N., Dorina, P. & Biddulph, R. (2001). Learning from Rural Development Programmes in Cambodia. In A. Straub (Ed.), Institutions, Livelihood and the Environment: Changes and Response in Mainland Southeast Asia. Copenhagen: NIAS.

Selected Conference Papers

1. Biddulph, R. (2011). Is the Geographies of Evasion hypothesis useful for explaining and predicting the fate of external interventions? The case of REDD in Cambodia. Paper presented at the Globalization and Development: Rethinking interventions and governance”, University of Gothenburg, November 22-23.
2. Biddulph, R. (2011). As Good as it Gets: insights into forest (mis)management, state and society in the village of Bey presented in panel on State Society Relations and Natural Resource Management in Cambodia. Joint Joint Conference of the Association for Asian Studies (AAS) and the International Convention of Asia Scholars (ICAS), “70 Years of Asian Studies” at the Hawaii Convention Center in Honolulu, Hawaii, March 31-April 3 2011
3. Biddulph, R. (2010). The End of the Controversy? Divorced Women’s land rights under systematic land titling in Cambodia. Presented in Panel on Gender and Security in Southeast Asia Today at the 6th EuroSEAS Conference, Gothenburg 25th-28th August.
4. Biddulph, R. (2009). Between Two Geographies: A Development Geography of Tenure Interventions in Rural Cambodia 1999-2009. Presented at Nordic Geographers Meeting, Turku Finland. Session 45, 10th June.

Selected Reports

1. Biddulph, R. (2012). REDD and Poverty in Cambodia, Focali Report No 2012:03 Gothenburg.
2. Biddulph, R. (2011). Avoided Deforestation and Agriculture: Insights from Cambodia into a Complex Relationship. Policy Brief 2011:07. Gothenburg: Focali.
3. Westholm, L., Biddulph, R., Hellmark, I., & Ekbo, E. (2011). REDD+ and Tenure: A Review of the Latest Developments in Research, Implementation and Debate. Gothenburg: Focali.
4. Biddulph, R., Westholm, L., Petersson, J., Strömberg, J., & Mattson, E. (2009). Focali Theme 2 Inception Report: Making REDD work for the Poor. Gothenburg: Focali.
5. Biddulph, R. (2005). Through the looking glasses: 53 reports on the Seila programme in Cambodia. A literature review for the DFID/Sida PAT. Oxford: Oxford Policy Management.
6. Biddulph, R. (2005). Options for Strengthening the District. Phnom Penh: Partnership for Local Governance/Seila.
7. Biddulph, R. (2004). Performance of the Seila Provincial Investment Fund a study for the DFID/Sida PAT. Oxford: Oxford Policy Management.
8. Biddulph, R. (2004). Poverty and Social Impact Assessment of Social Land Concessions in Cambodia: Land Assessment. Limited distribution draft. Oxfam GB/World Bank.
9. Biddulph, R. (2003). PAT Empowerment Study. Phnom Penh: DFID/Sida Permanent Advisory Team on the Seila Programme.
10. Öjendal, J., Sedara, K., Biddulph, R., & Wallgren, P. (2002). Understanding Decentralisation in Cambodia. Phnom Penh: CDRI/PADRIGU Consultants.
11. Biddulph, R. (2001). Mapping of NGO-World Bank Relations in Cambodia: A need for standards and indicators. Phnom Penh: NGO Forum on Cambodia.
12. Biddulph, R. (2001). Rapid Assessment of the PRSP Process in Cambodia: Two Banks, Two Processes, Two Documents. Phnom Penh: NGO Forum on Cambodia.
13. Biddulph, R. (2001). Situation Analysis of Chong Kal District: Health, Disability and Vulnerability. Phnom Penh: International Federation of the Red Cross.
14. Biddulph, R. (2001). Civil Society and Local Governance: Learning Lessons from Seila Communes. Phnom Penh: Seila Task Force Secretariat, Royal Government of Cambodia.

15. Biddulph, R. (2000). Making the Poor More Visible. (No. 4). Phnom Penh: Oxfam GB.
16. Biddulph, R. (2000). Evaluation Report: Save the Children Fund UK Community Development Programme in Cambodia. Phnom Penh: SCF UK.
17. Biddulph, R. (2000). Evaluation Report: Rural Development and Resettlement Project. Phnom Penh/Kuala Lumpur: UNDP/UNOPS.
18. Biddulph, R. (2000). Decentralisation and Commune Reform in Cambodia - Immediate Opportunities for Cambodian NGOs. Phnom Penh: Oxfam GB.

Popular Science Articles

1. Biddulph, R. (2006). Landlessness, Land Distribution and Justice in Rural Cambodia. NIAS nytt Asia Insights, 3, 15-18.
2. Biddulph, R. (2000). Landlessness: a Growing Problem. Cambodia Development Review, 4(3), 1-2.

PhD Thesis

Biddulph, R. (2010). Geographies of Evasion. The Development Industry and Property Rights Interventions in Early 21st Century Cambodia. University of Gothenburg, Gothenburg: Department of Human & Economic Geography.

Masters' Thesis

Biddulph, R. (1996). Participatory Development in Authoritarian Societies: The Case of Two Village Development Committees in the Province of Banteay Meanchey, Cambodia. Australian National University, Canberra: National Centre for Development Studies.

PART 3: FULL LIST OF RESEARCH GRANTS WON

Research Projects as Team Leader (and lead author of funding application):

1. FORMAS Grant 2018-00088 The Right to Buy in marginalised urban areas - how is local participation in urban planning and housing decision-making affected? (2018-2021) 3 463 349 SEK (with Dr Mattias Sandberg, Unit for Human Geography, GU)
2. FORMAS Grant 2015-1540 Social Enterprise in Scandinavia and Southeast Asia (2016-2018) 2 980 901 SEK (with Dr Johan Brink, Institute for Innovation & Entrepreneurship, GU)
3. FORMAS Grant 259-2011-1315 Mass Tourism and Sustainable Development in Impoverished Settings: The case of Angkor tourism and rural Siem Reap, Cambodia (2012-2015) 2 040 000

Research Projects as Team Member (and co-author of funding application):

4. FORMAS Grant 2015-1352 Securing land rights in sub-Saharan Africa: A critical examination of new approaches to tenure reform in practice (2016-2018) 3 000 000 SEK (with Dr Margareta Espling, GU, Dr Lasse Krantz, GU, Associate Professor Ellen Hillbom, LU)

Additional smaller research grants include

- 2 x 90 000 SEK planning grants from the Centre for Tourism (one of which led to Formas grant 259-2011-1315)
- An 100 000 SEK grant from the Anniversary Foundation of the School of Business, Economics and Law to conduct research on labour market integration in Biskopsgården in northern Gothenburg
- An Adlerbertska Foundation research grant which provided a supplement to the Formas funding for my work in Siem Reap