

UNIVERSITY OF GOTHENBURG
SCHOOL OF BUSINESS, ECONOMICS AND LAW

Curriculum Vitae Margareta Espling

Department of Economy and Society
Human Geography
xespma@gu.se

Academic degrees

1999                      Ph.D., Human Geography, University of Gothenburg
1985                      Bachelor, Economic Geography, Development Studies, University of Gothenburg

Main research fields:

Main teaching fields:

Academic experience

---

International academic experience:

2015 - 2015              Institutionellt kapacitetsuppbyggnadsprojekt

Other experience

---

Participation in public seminars:

2015                      Reformer för jordbruksutveckling i Rwanda, Utveckling i Afrika - på vems villkor?

Publications

---

Journal article (peer-reviewed)

Bayisenge, Jeannette, Höjer, Staffan, Espling, Margareta (2015) Women's land rights in the context of the land tenure reform in Rwanda – the experiences of policy implementers. Journal of Eastern African Studies, 9:1, p. 74-90.

Lubida, Alex, Pilesjö, Petter, Espling, Margareta, Runnström, Micael (2014) Applying the theory of planned behavior to explain geospatial data sharing for urban planning and management: cases from urban centers in Tanzania. African Geographical Review,

Book chapter

Espling, Margareta (2009) Women coping with change: Urban poverty and everyday politics in northern Mozambique. In Schlyter, Ann (ed): Body Politics and Women Citizens. African Experiences, Sida Studies No. 24, 12. Sida.

Conference paper

Muyombano, Emmanuel, Espling, Margareta (2015) Land use consolidation in Rwanda: the experiences of small-scale farmers in Musanze District. Agricultural Research for Development Conference, September 23-24, 2015, Uppsala, Sweden.

Espling, Margareta (2013) Coping with Change - the dynamics of women's work in urban Mozambique. The European Conference for African Studies, Lisbon, June 27-29.

Espling, Margareta (2009) Gendered Agency and Body Politics - Trajectories of urban women's livelihoods in Northern Mozambique. Paper presented at Gender Justice and Body Politics Research Conference, Environmental and Geographical Science Dept. & African Gender Institute, University of Cape Town, South Africa, 4-6 February, 2009.

Espling, Margareta (2009) Where Money is Scarce - Trajectories of Women's Collective Strategies for Resource Mobilisation in Northern Mozambique. 3rd Nordic Geographers Meeting, June 8-11 2009, Turku, Finland.

Dushimumuremyi, Jean Paul, Espling, Margareta, Pilesjö, Petter (2008) Assessment of accessibility to water in a rural area with limited water resources. The case of Bugesera region in Rwanda. Paper presented at in the 31st Geographical Congress, Tunis, August 12-15, 2008.

Espling, Margareta (2008) Power Together - Power to Act. Women mobilising resources through collective strategies in Uganda. Poster presented at the conference Meeting Global Challenges in Research Cooperation, Sida/Uppsala University/SLU, Uppsala May 27-29, 2008.

Espling, Margareta (2007) It makes a difference! Local Perceptions of Affirmative Action for Women in Local Councils in Uganda. Paper presented at Nordic Africa Days, Nordic Africa Institute, Uppsala Oct. 5-7, 2007.

Report

Espling, Margareta (2003) Women's organisations and groups in Iganga district, Uganda.